Hello Kevin,

I do not know what the normal hourly rate for tow truck operators are, but through some discussions today with some commercial providers, we landed in $125 an hour. I hope this was helpful.

Hi Kevin,

I actually have no idea. We are purchasing right now at about 90K for some of the rigs...

I have voted Peter who is overseeing or equipment team in case he can advise.

Hi Marlin

Good call today, with lots of helpful information.

Quick (and urgent) question for you... what is the market rate for towing services? I am thinking it's an hourly rate but whatever you can find for both personal vehicles and large commercial vehicles. I'm hoping in the context of the rest of the work, you'll have that at your fingertips. Apologies for the urgent request, Marlin, but anything you have would be appreciated.

Kevin
